

PK - a unique identifier for a specific record within a table
 FK - a field that links to the primary key of another table to establish a relationship 1 to N means that the relationship is one-to-many 1 to 1 means that the relationship is one-to-one